Leadership Skills for Men - 11 Steps to Leadership Greatness

You can have confidence, intelligence and a sparkling formal education. This is not the fast track formula to becoming a successful leadership.

They may help you get noticed, but you need leadership attributes that are acquired through patience, hard work and a great plan to become a great leader.

This book offers you the framework for your leadership strategic plan!

Leadership comes with its perks. It's a good feeling to be the person in charge. To hold your head up high knowing that you shape the destiny of a program and its people. But the down sides are weighty: loneliness from tough, unpopular decisions, stress during adversity or failure of the team resting squarely on your shoulders.

Leaders aren't born. They are made.

Whether you want to coach your daughter's softball team, take on a management role at your office or upgrade your leadership knowledge, become a better leader by adopting the 11 Step Leadership Plan.

If you agree that leadership is a journey and leadership excellence is not just happenstance, then I want to share examples from one of the greatest leaders in sport.

Head NBA Basketball Coach, Gregg Popovich, San Antonio Spurs

Coach Pop's storied career is a testament to applying key leadership fundamentals. He's the perfect case study to support my leadership claims.

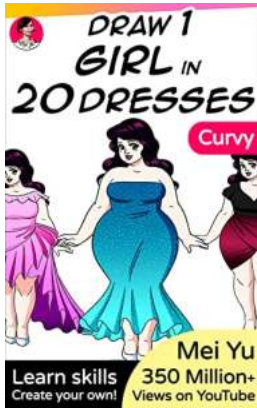

This book isn't about Coach Pop's rise to basketball coaching glory. This book is a training tool to acquaint you with key leadership skills. It just so happens that Coach Pop embodies them all and I've chosen some examples from his career to help make the point.

The 11 step guide is a short read that reveals these fundamentals in straight forward terms. At the end of the book, I've summarized the main points so you can return to these ideas quickly and easily.

I'll shed light on key leadership skills and qualities:

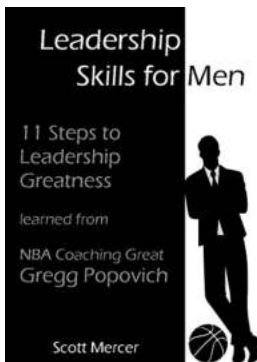

- The Success Frame of Mind
- Building a Support Network
- Passion & Competence
- Courage
- Being Present
- Your Personal Code
- Communication
- The Game Plan & Your Team
- Know Thyself & Take Critics With a Grain of Salt
- Mentors & Role Models
- Managing Time

Take leadership to the next level. Commit the time and small expense to be better informed.
