The Dancing Dolphin technique adds an extra element of texture and charm to these squares, making them stand out in a crowd.

The Artistry of Dancing Dolphin

Dancing Dolphin is a crochet technique that originated from the creative mind of renowned crocheter and designer, Jane Doe. Jane's unique approach to crochet squares involves creating intricate patterns based on the elegance and grace of dolphins. With carefully placed stitches and captivating color combinations, each square comes to life, resembling the rhythmic dance of these majestic creatures.

This wonderful collection of 50 innovative square designs will quickly become a much-used volume in your personal crochet library. Whether you are looking for a colorful square for a child's afghan, a square suitable for your favorite man, or a dramatic flower design, you'll find it here.

The squares, ranging from 5" to 12", are all shown crocheted using worsted (medium) weight yarn. However, you may make the squares in any weight yarn or thread you choose, which will of course change the size and appearance. You should also feel free to change colors to suit your own taste and decor. Different colors can completely change the way a square looks. Patterns include Water Lily, Coral Coneflower, Ruffle-Go-Round, Pineapples, Whirligig, and more.
