The Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood

In 1848, Brown became one of the founding members of the Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood. This group of artists, including William Holman Hunt and Dante Gabriel Rossetti, sought to reject the industrialization of their era by returning to the detailed and vibrant artistic style that precedes Raphael.

Together, they aimed to revolutionize the British art scene and challenge the prevailing academic standards. Their art was characterized by an emphasis on nature, intricate detailing, and vivid colors.
