

A Delightful Journey Into the Whimsical World of Poems By Edward Lear

*The Owl and the Pussy cat went to sea
In a beautiful pea-green boat
They took some honey, and plenty of money,
Wrapped up in a five pound note.*

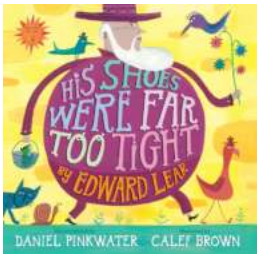

*Far and few, far and few
Are the lands where the Jumblies live;
Their heads are green, and their hands are blue,
And they went to sea in a sieve . . .*

Edward Lear, a man with an incredibly vivid imagination, gifted the world with his eccentric and enchanting poems. His whimsical verses have brought joy and laughter to readers for generations, painting vivid pictures of fantastical creatures and nonsensical adventures.
