With over 70 beautiful color photos, this Ireland travel photo book captures and preserves the beauty of ancient, medieval, historical, and modern Ireland in a "coffee table" style tablet eBook that is easy to carry and to view anytime and anywhere. The reader may look at this book as a coast to coast virtual tour of Ireland, time traveling from 3,000 BC ancient sites, to early history abbeys, to medieval castles, and to scenic places off the beaten path in Ireland. It is my wish that, upon viewing the variety of photos in this travel photo book, you will be inspired to travel to Ireland yourself, to see these Irish "gems" in person.

Inside you will find a collection of my favorite photos, over 70 in total, taken in recent years on numerous trips to Ireland. Counties Cork, Galway, Kerry, Mayo, Meath, and Sligo are well represented in this Ireland Mosaic Photo Journey feast. The book ends with a few short Irish traditions and Celtic history stories told with some humorous twists.

I hope that you enjoy viewing these special photos of Ireland. May you be blessed with an opportunity to visit Ireland to view these wonderful, mystical, magical places and apply McCarthy's 8th Rule of Travel: "Never pass a pub that has your name on it".

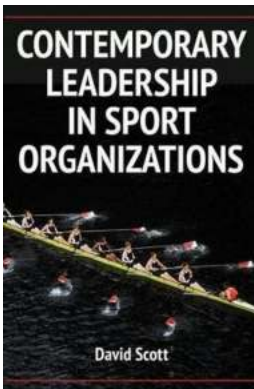

Five percent of this book's sales' royalties support selected Irish youth programs in Ireland.
