The story begins with Rebecca, a young woman seeking solace after a heartbreaking loss. Drawn to the charming allure of the Chai House, she finds herself immersed in a world far beyond her imagination. As she befriends the enigmatic owner, Mr. Singh, Rebecca discovers that the Chai House holds secrets of its own.

Enter Kieran, a handsome and mysterious stranger who frequents the Chai House. With a past shrouded in shadows, Kieran brings an aura of danger that both intrigues and frightens Rebecca. As their paths continue to cross, she begins to question her own desires and whether she can trust the stranger with a murky past.

Parallel to their story is the tale of Annabelle, a young artist struggling to find her voice amidst the chaos of the city. Through chance encounters at the Chai House, Annabelle finds inspiration in unexpected places and discovers the transformative power of love and friendship.

A World of Intrigue and Romance

In this novella Priti Srivastava brings us into the life of one of The Chai House's most mysterious characters, sharing a glimpse into a few months of her life as she settles into a new love. All About Me is an evocative tale which gives us the opportunity to reflect on why some may make choices that put themselves at risk all in order to help others; decisions made so that individuals who may not otherwise have the chance to survive are able to do so in a world that some would choose to destroy in reaction to the suggestion of sharing power or losing control.
