At eighteen, Devyn is already a general.

He knows he's up to the job ...

... even if no one else thinks so.

But maybe the job is too much to handle. He has to whip a bunch of spoiled, undisciplined brats into a deadly cavalry and lead them to victory. All while having serious doubts about his cause, AND trying to convince the woman he loves to take a chance on him.

Devyn isn't sure he can handle it all, but giving up is not an option.

... or is it?

Carina retired from the army to start a family.

Now she finds herself leading a rebellion.

Even worse, she's on a collision course with Devyn. When the first battle goes more horribly than she ever imagined, can she stay in the fight? Or will she turn her back on the war to salvage what's left of her life?

Civil war consumes a kingdom, ensnaring rich and poor alike. The fight rages at city walls, across vast battlefields, and in the hearts of every citizen and soldier.

Another fast-paced historical fantasy from the author of the Desolate Empire Series. Get it now!
