Immersing in Maori Culture

The Maori culture is an integral part of New Zealand's identity, and Alice explores it with great enthusiasm. She visits traditional Maori villages, where she learns the ancient art of ta moko (tattoo) and haka (war dance). Alice gains a deep appreciation for the Maori people's connection with the land and their rich cultural heritage.

Encounters with Wildlife

New Zealand is a haven for unique wildlife, some of which Alice encounters during her journey. She walks amongst the playful fur seals at Kaikoura, marvels at the acrobatic displays of dolphins in the Bay of Islands, and witnesses the magnificent albatross soaring across the blue skies.
