BEST FRIENDS DON'T KISS, BUT UNDER THE STAGE LIGHTS, ALL BETS ARE OFF

I've been in love with my best friend ever since he shared his PB&J with me in first grade. Maybe I should have confessed my feelings when we were kids — before we grew up and his jawline (and abs) got razor sharp sculpted. Before women everywhere found out how gorgeous he is. Before he became YouTube famous, and grown into a man so irresistible, the only PB&J I now want would be straight off his lips.

But now we're cast in the National Broadway Tour of West Side Story together. And those stage kisses... they feel so much more than just an act. They feel amazing. Like, Tony Award winning, showstopper, standing ovation, encore for days amazing.

What's the harm in a few love scenes. It's all fake, right?

But I'd fall into the orchestra pit before admitting I'd like a repeat performance for just me.

Many repeat performances, actually.

But how could I even entertain the idea of making him choose between me and a dazzling career on Broadway? Because once the tour ends, so will this dreamy, star-crossed fantasy.

♥ Adorkable friends to lovers banter

♥ Sizzling stage kisses

♥ Sunshiny Latinx heroine

If you like a light, fun, warm read that puts a smile on your face, this book is for you.

Based on Mansfield Park, this best friends to lovers romantic comedy adds a modern and latinx spin on the beloved classic.
