There is an exciting culinary scene emerging in Virginia's state capital. Once a hidden gem, Richmond is becoming a destination for chefs and bartenders creating next level food and cocktails. Former tobacco warehouses and cigarette factories, once abandoned, are now being converted to lofts, artisan spaces, and craft breweries. Add into the mix rustic beauty, classic American architecture, and a wide range of outdoor activities and you have a city well worth visiting. FED Guides connects you with local chefs, bartenders, and restaurateurs to help you zero in on the places not to be missed for eating, drinking, and shopping. Our curated guidebook also includes where to bike, hike, bowl, see a baseball game, buy vinyl, get inked up, and indulge in a hipster barber cut and shave.

This book includes 24-Hour Eating & Drinking Guides, FED Top Picks, Souvenirs Made in Richmond, Outdoor & Cultural Activities, Curated Itineraries, Where to Stay, and Spotify Playlists which include musical artists from Virginia.
