Batters up for the biggest game of my life! There I was, captain of the CLEO Sevens in the All-CLEO AstroBall Tournament. I sure hoped the rest of the team couldn't tell that I didn't know the first thing about the sport.

Good thing my e-reader could teach me how to play. But why was it telling me strikes were good? This wasn't bowling! Anyway, I couldn't let Deeter Meteor and his Fives beat us. Nyet. It would take something special to win this game.
