A girl who betrayed the government. A boy whose worst enemy is himself. A group of former Academy kids running from the past and hoping to change the future.

A week has passed since Emma, Jesse, and their friends escaped the clutches of the Academy. But they are far from safe. The government is hunting them, there may be a traitor in their midst, and close quarters cause tensions to reach boiling points that might just kill them before the Ambassador has the chance.

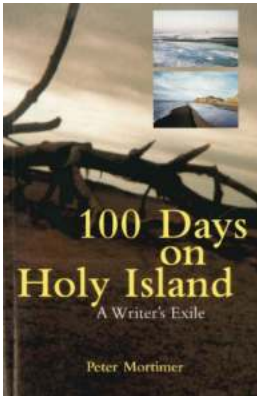

When someone from Emma's past saves them from a near-deadly encounter, they discover an organization of rogue Academy kids who have been working against the government for years. But the leaders of this group may have more sinister motives than it seems. Are the rogue Academy kids truly free, or have they simply traded one form of imprisonment for another?

Secrets, betrayal, and inner demons haunt Emma, Jesse, and their friends as they navigate their new lives, connect with allies old and new, and figure out a way to take down the Academy once and for all. But as the full scope of the government's reach comes to light, they realize they may be up against more than they can survive.
