No trip to Peru would be complete without a visit to the legendary Machu Picchu. This ancient citadel, perched high in the Andes Mountains, is a testament to the ingenuity and brilliance of the Inca civilization. Bibi embarked on a multi-day trek along the Inca Trail, immersing herself in the stunning natural beauty of the surrounding landscape.

As she arrived at the entrance of Machu Picchu, Bibi was overwhelmed by a sense of awe and reverence. After her transformative experience at Machu Picchu, Bibi made her way to Cusco, the historical capital of the Inca Empire. Nestled in the Andes Mountains, this vibrant city is a treasure trove of archaeological wonders and cultural delights.

Bibi spent her days exploring the narrow cobblestone streets, marvelling at the magnificent colonial architecture, and indulging in the vibrant local cuisine.
