Begin with a gentle weekend break in Belgium and discover Central Europe's vast array of cities, towns, cultures and terrain, right through the heart of the continent, to the very 'sole' of its land mass. Travel by train to major cities and many less known, but equally exciting locations in Poland, Germany, Austria, Hungary and Italy. Meet the history shapers, inventors, artists and composers whose creations have outlived dynasties and wars.

Spend time in some of the world's best hotels, restaurants and coffee houses one day, and experience the amazing hospitality and quality of service from budget bookings and tucked away cafes the next.

Walk along the banks of famous rivers and uncover countless attractions, legends and gossip. Find out how a racing circuit, a Greek Goddess and a plague of frogs come to be mentioned in the same paragraph. It's an excursion to suit all tastes, with adventures, mishaps, and good fortune, that will raise more than a chuckle.

The story pays respects to the poignant, recognises the beautiful and the oddball, all in one volume. If you thought you already knew all about Central Europe, this might surprise you.
