Carolyn Scarf is named for my mother. I received 2 balls of bright orange Classic Elite Bamboo and immediately thought of her. She loves orange, and I thought the bamboo will create a wonderful drape and the color will be great for her.

The cascading leaves are complimented with a fun stem that helps to add to the overall drapery effect of the scarf.

Knit in two pieces this scarf is sewn up the center to create complimenting sides. A provisional cast on may be used if desired. This is a fairly fast project which can be knit as long as desired.
