I almost believed the look of pain that came across his face.

Almost!

My heart had turned to stone. At least that's what I convinced myself. So, no matter what he said or what he did, I will not turn back.

"J please, ask me to do anything else. Anything. Just--" He paused for a moment, his eyes searching mine.

"Just don't leave me..." His words made him very vulnerable. He was taking a risk even uttering them. Vulnerable like I was watching him walk into his party with another woman on his arm.

"Do you love me?" My voice was cold.

"More than anything in this world."

Be strong, sista! He doesn't mean it!

"Then let me go."

Will Journey and Joseph's Love survive the betrayal?
