Lesson 1: Mastering Time Management

08 Secrets for Mastering Time Management

- 1. Declutter
Declutter your desk, your inbox, your task list, and your life.
- 2. Plan
Plan out your work day and stick to it (check off accomplished tasks as you go.)
- 3. Prioritize
Rank your tasks in terms of priority and align them with your job demands, your goals and MBOs.
- 4. Be effective
It's not a race. Don't try to be the most efficient; try to be the most effective.
- 5. Focus
Focus on the "vital few" rather than on the "vital many".
- 6. Finish the job
Develop your "finishing instinct" - when you get to a task, complete it no matter what.
- 7. Stop procrastinating
Most people tend to tackle easy tasks first and push out the difficult ones - don't fall into this trap!
- 8. Stay organized
Once you get organized, stay organized.

Artists have always been fascinated with portraying the nude: the beauty and nuances of the human figure are endlessly absorbing. This practical and inspirational book celebrates and continues that enduring and beautiful tradition by encouraging you to discover your own talent and style. Philip Tyler looks in detail at the key skills and themes, such as perception, proportion, composition, colour and facture, that the artist needs. He then investigates ideas and styles, and encourages you to interpret the nude so your paintings have those elusive qualities of vitality and relevance, which can turn a painting into a masterpiece. He explores the practical, technical and philosophical problems of drawing and painting the nude, with exercises to support each lesson and over 300 images illustrate the text. Aimed at both novices and art graduates, this practical and inspirational guide is illustrated throughout with 320 colour images and there are exercises to support the fifty lessons.
