□□Note from the Author□□

I was born a rodeo kid; I married a rodeo guy and I am the proud mom of two rodeo cowboys.

I believe that there is the life you are born into, and then later, the life you choose.

Lots of people choose the life they were born into, but some don't. Some contestants in our rodeo family didn't inherit a 'ticket' into the rodeo lifestyle via birthright.

I am particularly intrigued by these people. These people have chosen a way of life very different from what they have always known.

I think that there are tons of kids out there who are just aching to live their rodeo dreams. I hope my books encourage children to do just that.
