Suspense comes to Babylon when Jack is linked to the Manhattan DA's young wife, Ginger Harrow.

Intertwining lives lift some up and knock a few others down, but life goes on in Babylon. Alison's new husband, Adam Marchand discovers what makes the village dwellers tick, much to his shock when his coffee shop, Village Grounds, becomes the meeting place in town.

Then Pam makes a terrible discovery in the attic of her step-daughter Laura Long's beach cottage and during the investigation, she's forced to expose buried memories of Brent.

Later, chance meeting in the coffee shop reveals the truth about what had happened at the beach ten years before.
