One of the iconic spots to witness the beauty of trees in Hanoi is the Hoan Kiem Lake. Located in the heart of the city, this serene lake is surrounded by lush greenery and ancient trees, such as the Banyan tree, which is believed to be over 300 years old. The shade and tranquility offered by these green giants make it a perfect spot for locals and tourists to relax and unwind.

Another must-visit destination for tree enthusiasts is the famous Temple of Literature, which is not only a historical site but also a haven of greenery. It is home to numerous old trees, including the 700-year-old venerable Văn Miếu C?u tree. The lush green landscape surrounding the temple creates a peaceful atmosphere, allowing visitors to connect with nature while learning about Vietnam's prestigious scholars.

Nha Trang - Where Beaches Meet Rainforests

Located on Vietnam's stunning central coast, Nha Trang is a picturesque seaside town that offers a perfect blend of natural beauty and modern amenities. Apart from its pristine beaches and crystal-clear waters, Nha Trang is a haven for tree lovers, with its abundant rainforests and breathtaking landscapes.

One of the must-see spots is the beautiful Ba Ho Waterfall located in the nearby Khanh Hoa province. This hidden gem is nestled amidst dense forests, offering a refreshing retreat from the tropical heat. As you hike through the trails leading to the waterfall, you'll be surrounded by towering trees and vibrant flora, creating an awe-inspiring spectacle.

In the heart of Nha Trang lies the mesmerizing Hon Tam Island, often referred to as the Green Pearl of Nha Trang. This stunning island is covered in lush greenery and tropical trees, making it a paradise for nature lovers. You can take a leisurely stroll along the nature trails, surrounded by the sights and sounds of exotic birds and animals.

For those seeking adventure, a trip to the Yang Bay Eco Park is a must. Here, in the heart of a protected rainforest, you can embark on exciting canopy walks amidst towering trees that offer breathtaking views of the surrounding wilderness. The park also boasts pristine waterfalls, natural hot springs, and a rich diversity of flora and fauna, making it an unforgettable nature experience.

Discover the Tree Beauty of Vietnam in 2021

In a world where concrete landscapes dominate the urban skylines, Hanoi and Nha Trang offer a refreshing escape into the arms of nature. The presence of these beautiful trees not only enhances the visual appeal of the cities but also provides a peaceful atmosphere for locals and tourists alike.

If you are planning a trip to Vietnam in 2021, make sure to explore the stunning tree landscapes in Hanoi and Nha Trang. Experience the tranquility of Hoan Kiem Lake, get lost in the historical and green surroundings of the Temple of Literature, discover the hidden beauty of Ba Ho Waterfall near Nha Trang, and immerse yourself in the lush greenery of Hon Tam Island and Yang Bay Eco Park.

By embracing the natural beauty of Hanoi and Nha Trang, you will witness firsthand why Vietnam is celebrated as a nature lover's paradise. So pack your bags, grab your camera, and get ready for an unforgettable journey amidst the spectacular trees and breathtaking landscapes of Vietnam.
