Let sleeping dogs lie, or wake them up and risk getting bitten?

When Jennifer's sent to Belgium to untangle her mysterious boss' problem, she doesn't expect to land feet-first in a World War II era mystery. Local townspeople have more reasons to hide the truth than to risk exposure, and it doesn't take long before she'd right in the thick of ancient feuds and missing treasure. With her friends from Ravenwood Cove, James and Amanda, coming to visit, she knows it's a trip to Belgium they'll never forget!

Clean language, and only rated PG because hey, there's a murderer running around in this book.
