After soaking in the beauty of Alnwick Castle, hop on board a short drive to Bamburgh Castle. Perched on a rocky outcrop overlooking the golden sands of Bamburgh Beach, this imposing fortress has witnessed centuries of history. Discover its intriguing past as you wander through the impressive rooms and admire the stunning coastal views.

Day 2: Holy Island and Lindisfarne Castle

On the second day of your Northumberland adventure, we take you to the enchanting Holy Island, also known as Lindisfarne. Accessible only at low tide, this small island is a haven for nature lovers and history enthusiasts. Take a leisurely stroll around the island, explore the picturesque village, and marvel at the iconic Lindisfarne Priory ruins.

Make your way up the hill to Lindisfarne Castle, a striking 16th-century fortification sitting atop a rocky crag. The castle offers panoramic views of the dramatic coastline and the surrounding countryside. Explore the charming rooms and learn about the castle's intriguing history as you immerse yourself in this idyllic island escape.

Day 3: Farne Islands and Seahouses

As your weekend jaunt continues, get ready to embark on a memorable boat trip to the famous Farne Islands. These rocky outcrops are a haven for seabirds, including puffins, guillemots, and terns. Get up close to nature and witness the vibrant bird colonies in their natural habitat. You might even spot seals lounging on the rocks!

After your thrilling Farne Islands adventure, make your way to the charming coastal village of Seahouses. Enjoy a leisurely stroll along the promenade, taste freshly caught seafood, and explore the quaint shops offering local crafts and souvenirs. Take in the panoramic sea views and let the peaceful coastal atmosphere wash over you.

Day 4: Craster and Dunstanburgh Castle

On your final day, we'll take you to the picturesque village of Craster, famous for its traditional smokehouses. Sample delicious smoked kippers and other local delicacies as you explore this charming fishing village.

A short walk from Craster will bring you to the awe-inspiring Dunstanburgh Castle. This romantic ruin set amidst wild coastal scenery is a photographer's dream. Stroll along the rugged coastline, capture breathtaking views, and let the rich history of the castle transport you to a bygone era.

A travel guide book with a difference which gives a well planned 4 day, 3 location tour by car, through the beautiful wild untamed scenery of Northumberland taking the reader on a journey through time, visiting magnificent castles, remote Islands including Lindisfarne, fortified towns including Berwick On Tweed and Alnwick, the pretty unspoilt villages of Craster, Ford and Etal, wildlife havens and the battlefield of Flodden. For birdwatchers and wildlife lovers alike, as well as those looking to follow in the footsteps of St Cuthbert and St Aiden Northumberland is a delight.

When I think of Northumberland it stirs memories of peaceful golden sandy beaches, rolling hills, sheer cliffs and untamed rugged moorland with wildlife in abundance. I think of romantic castles, ancient battlefields and fortified towns, every place with its own heritage and tale to tell. Gastronomic delights of fresh fish and seafood await the visitor as does stunning views and an excellent variety of sporting activities. Above all, as found in the North of England, there's always a friendly welcome from the locals in this county which has more to offer the visitor than you would expect.

This illustrated ebook gives directions, maps, location information & travel tips used by the author.

In these hard times do you fancy going on a “weekend jaunt” to cheer yourself up, touring around some of the attractions this lovely country of ours has to offer, staying in multiple locations, but thought it too hard to organise?

Are you looking for a new kind of travel/guide book? Or perhaps you are planning a first trip to Britain, and are looking for a short tour guide which will give you a taste of what Britain has to offer, outside of London? Perhaps one which gives:

- A well planned 4 day multiple location tour in the mysterious county of Northumberland, which you can customise and enjoy at your own pace.
- Detailed information on how to organise your own weekend jaunt (travel, accommodation, visitor attractions, location history and information, etc.)
- Tips on how to keep costs down whilst away and website addresses to visit to obtain best value for money deals and promotions.
- Gives daily itinerary’s to maximise the time spent in each location which you can follow, or tailor to suit yourself.
- Has maps, pictures and information on locations and attractions (including address, opening times, web address, how to get there, history &/or other pertinent information)
- All the information required in one book rather than having to purchase and carry, several city /town different guides whilst on your Weekend Jaunt
- Is suitable for all age groups and nationalities (particularly long haul visitors wishing to see as much of Britain as they can in a limited timescale, but not wanting to join a group arranged tour).
- Armchair traveller information and website addresses to enable them to “virtually” undertake the tour and visit attractions on line, if they cannot visit them in person.
