On the tropical Valley Isle of Maui, everything is done at the speed of "Maui Time"--when someone gets to it.

For Dr. June Kato, it means her baby will be born when it is good and ready to join the family. And it might not be at the most convenient time! Only days before her due date, June is at the end of her wits when her home is invaded by poisonous creatures. Ordinarily tougher than nails, June's real concern is about protecting her baby. Concerned pregnant women all over Maui have been dying from scorpion stings, June steps in to find out this little piece of paradise is under attack. Can she follow the twists and turns to discover what--or who--is responsible for the untimely deaths before her own baby comes? And what will she risk to bring it to an end?

Follow June as she turns Maui time upside-down, racing from the craziness of island living straight into the delivery room!
