Welcome to the Adventures of Riverlea Farm in South Africa!

These adventures are bright and cheery written about real life. Along with the primary illustrations, the books are full of charming artwork and are designed to keep children engaged as they learn. The illustrations are digital adaptations from actual photographs taken of the main character, Jon-the-Vet, his farm at Riverlea and his pets. Each of the books finishes with a small activity to keep minds active and growing, along with an educational page of "Did You Know?"

In this eighth book of the series, Jon-the-Vet has a surprise for his little girl. One day the Coastal Horse Care Unit arrives and delivers a sweet old pony named Calypso who is ready to retire. From pajama rides on Sundays to dressing up as Prince Phillip, this book breaks gender stereotypes for little girls and teaches the lesson of what to do when you fall down. Book Eight finishes with a question and answer activity, along with a "Did You Know" page dedicated to the Coast Horse Care Unit of KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa.

Through rhyme and humor, and occasional life lessons, children will enjoy the adventures to be found on a farm in South Africa. The series has been written by Penelope Alison, a speech language pathologist, for the language enrichment of children ages two to seven. The series can also serve as a reader for children in grades two to three looking to expand their reading skills.
