If you have the opportunity to come to Lang Son, a mountainous province with majestic mountains and poetic scenery, do not forget to enjoy the specialties or snacks typical for the rich cuisine here. .

1. Roast duck

It is a breed of duck named Bau That Khe. After being cleaned, it will be impregnated with additional flavorings: onions, pepper, molasses, stuffed inside the duck and then sewn. The outer part is soaked in honey and left for about 10 minutes. Next, roast the duck over charcoal for 15 minutes. After spinning, dip it in the fat pan, stir it again and again, and then put it on a rack to cool. When roasting duck requires a technique not to burn black, to ensure the heat, the longer the roast, the more aromatic the meat. Duck meat must be soaked in honey color, the meat eaten is rich and tender. This dish requires the processor to be skillful so that the duck meat is not fishy and smells like honey leaves. When eating dipping with the remaining water in the duck after roasting, add soy sauce and chili. In addition to roast duck, duck noodle soup here is also very famous. The soft and sweet duck meat, the greasy broth and the sour taste of bamboo shoots create an irresistible attraction for Lang cuisine.
