Enjoy travelling through outback Australia with Allan and Gloria - sometimes free camping off the beaten track, discovering long-lost history in the old goldfields and meeting a few real Aussie characters. There's a bit of humour, money saving hints and advice for new chum travellers and a Christian message. But there's no need to leave your comfy recliner chair if you read this.

Gloria's previous book "Why Conservation?" (1979) was a very early rational approach to environmental awareness. She has received many awards for volunteering, including a nomination for Australian of the Year 2010.
