Nazareth is much more than the Basilica of the Annunciation and Mary's well. It is a town of many different quarters, markets, churches and sites. The ERETZ Guide is produced by Israel's leading geographic magazine, and includes detailed routes and maps to the various quarters of Nazareth, a listing of Nazareth's vibrant culinary scene and recommendations for accommodations in the town itself in the many ancient mansions that have been turned into unique B&B guest houses. The detailed maps give street names (many of them numbers) throughout the maze of alleys of the Old City (most of them do not appear on Waze or Google maps), and a myriad of sites to visit and places to enjoy and specialty shops in the markets and around.

The ERETZ Guide to Nazareth was written by Yadin Roman, editor in chief of ERETZ Magazine, and one of Israel's foremost experts on the lore and heritage of the Land of Israel.
