One of the biggest attractions in Siena is the Piazza del Campo, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and the main square of the city. This stunning piazza is known for its unique shell-shaped architecture and is home to the famous Palio di Siena, a thrilling horse race that has been held twice a year since the 17th century. Immerse yourself in the excitement and tradition of this event, and witness the passion and rivalry that runs deep in the veins of every Sienese.

Delving Into Tuscan Cuisine

No visit to Tuscany would be complete without indulging in the region's renowned cuisine. Tuscan food is simple yet flavorful, with a focus on high-quality ingredients and traditional cooking techniques.

Start your culinary adventure with a classic Tuscan antipasto, featuring local cured meats, cheeses, and marinated vegetables. Then, savor the rich flavors of ribollita, a hearty vegetable soup, or pappardelle al ragù, a pasta dish with a succulent meat sauce. Don't forget to pair your meal with a glass of Chianti, a red wine produced in the region for centuries.

Exploring the Tuscan Countryside

When you've had your fill of urban delights, it's time to venture into the breathtaking Tuscan countryside. The rolling hills, vineyards, and olive groves stretch as far as the eye can see, creating a picturesque landscape that will leave you in awe.

One of the best ways to explore the countryside is by taking a leisurely bike ride or a scenic hiking trail. Feel the warm breeze brush against your skin as you pedal through the quaint villages, stopping along the way to admire the medieval castles and taste the locally produced wine and olive oil.

Soaking Up the Tuscan Sun

No trip to Tuscany would be complete without some well-deserved relaxation under the warm Tuscan sun. With its pleasant Mediterranean climate, the region offers plenty of opportunities for outdoor activities and unwinding amidst nature.

Head to one of the many stunning beaches along the Tuscan coastline to soak up the sun, take a refreshing swim in the crystal-clear waters, or partake in water sports such as sailing, windsurfing, or kayaking. Alternatively, you can find tranquility in one of the region's luxurious spa resorts, where you can pamper yourself with rejuvenating treatments and indulge in pure bliss.

Under the Siena sun, Tuscany unveils its treasures, inviting you on an unforgettable adventure. Whether you're exploring the historical sites of Siena, indulging in the flavors of Tuscan cuisine, roaming through the countryside, or simply basking in the warm embrace of the Tuscan sun, this region has something for everyone.

So, pack your bags, leave your worries behind, and let Tuscany's timeless beauty and charm transport you to a place where dream and reality merge into one unforgettable experience.

Lucy needed a change of scene. She didn't expect the change of a lifetime.

Doctors Without Borders has been Lucy Young's life for the past four years. After being rescued from a conflict zone, she's making a change from saving lives under gunfire to practising medicine in safe, serene Siena.

Now treating wealthy patients at a private clinic, she's never felt less comfortable. She's used to helping those in dire need – not those in need of a nip and tuck. Her turmoil grows when she encounters injured tennis star David Lorenzo, whose smiles make Lucy forget her aversion to the rich.

She's soon falling for the sportsman but is she losing herself in this world of excess? All she's ever wanted was to help the underprivileged, so can her future lie in Siena at the clinic – with David?

This sunny romance is the perfect summer escape for fans of Lucy Coleman and Alex Brown.
