Exploring Historic Valletta

Begin your weekend in Malta by immersing yourself in the historical charm of Valletta, the capital city. With its narrow cobblestone streets, ornate Baroque architecture, and stunning views of the Grand Harbor, Valletta is a UNESCO World Heritage site that will captivate your senses.

Visit St. John's Co-Cathedral, a masterpiece of High Baroque art and home to Caravaggio's famous painting, "The Beheading of Saint John the Baptist." Explore the Upper Barrakka Gardens, where you can enjoy panoramic views of the harbor and the Three Cities.

Be sure to stop by the National Museum of Archaeology, which houses a remarkable collection of artifacts from Malta's prehistoric past, including the mysterious and awe-inspiring megalithic temples.

Discovering the Azure Window

No trip to Malta would be complete without visiting the breathtaking Azure Window. Located on the island of Gozo, this natural limestone arch stands tall against crashing waves, offering a mesmerizing glimpse into the raw power of nature.

Take a boat trip to explore the stunning Blue Grotto, a series of caves known for their vibrant blue waters. Dive into the crystal-clear sea and witness the vibrant marine life that calls this area home. From colorful fish to majestic coral reefs, the underwater world of Malta is teeming with wonders waiting to be discovered.

Indulging in Maltese Cuisine

Malta is a haven for food lovers, with its unique blend of Mediterranean, North African, and Sicilian influences. Allow Amit Choudhury to guide you through the culinary delights of Malta, where traditional dishes are infused with local flavors and fresh produce.

Savor the taste of pastizzi, a popular Maltese pastry filled with ricotta cheese or mushy peas. Don't miss out on trying fenkata, a traditional rabbit stew, or lampuki pie, a delicious fish pie made with locally caught dorado.

End your culinary adventure with a glass of local wine or the famous Maltese liqueur, called bajtra, made from prickly pears. Amit Choudhury suggests visiting the charming fishing village of Marsaxlokk to indulge in the freshest seafood the island has to offer.

Unwind in the Magical Blue Lagoon

A short boat ride from the main island of Malta will lead you to the stunning Blue Lagoon, a true paradise for beach lovers. With its crystal-clear turquoise waters and soft white sands, this secluded bay is the perfect spot to relax, soak up the sun, and swim in a natural pool of serenity.

Snorkel among colorful fish and vibrant coral, or take a kayaking adventure to explore the hidden caves and coves along the coastline. Amit Choudhury recommends bringing a picnic basket filled with local delicacies to truly make the most of this idyllic setting.

A weekend in Malta with Amit Choudhury promises to be an extraordinary escape. From the historical streets of Valletta to the natural wonders of Gozo and the tranquility of the Blue Lagoon, this enchanting archipelago offers a perfect blend of adventure, culture, and relaxation.

Embrace the opportunity to explore Malta's rich history, indulge in its unique cuisine, and immerse yourself in the unparalleled beauty that surrounds you. Join Amit Choudhury on a memorable journey through this breathtaking Mediterranean paradise, and create unforgettable memories that will last a lifetime.

Situated in the heart of the Mediterranean, the Republic of Malta is the most sun-blessed country of Europe. A melting pot of creeds and cultures with prehistoric temples, hidden coves, rugged coastlines, fishing villages, and turbulent history, Malta has so much to offer. Today Maltese archipelago are a magnet for sunseekers, scuba divers, and party animals from all over the world. Despite cosmopolitan restaurants, pubs, and notorious traffic, the country has a laid back vibe with fortified cities like Valletta and the silent city of Mdina frozen in time. Maltese cuisine with Sicilian and middle eastern influence along with fresh local ingredients like rabbit, fish, olives, capers, and honey provides the meal of a lifetime and often served with a view. From traditional rabbit stew (stuffat tal-fenek) to crunchy pastizzi pastry, the focus is always on preserving the taste and texture of seasonal and fresh ingredients. In the spring of 2020, I visited Malta for a long weekend, and through this memoir, I share my incredible experience with Malta.
