This is Oliver Grant's second homoerotic book of poems after Erotic Haiku, and his sixth book of gay-themed literature.

The present collection of poems contains twenty pieces; almost all are in one page each. This is very much different from the three-line haiku verses. Rhyming is the rule in all the poems, unlike the recent trend of prose-like poetry!

As in all his work, the content deals with homoerotic amorous frolicking usually in open terms. However, in the present collection Oliver Grant used less shocking expressions, the reason being that some of the poems were posted on Instagram!
