A young forest engineer finds himself on the Christmas storm watch with a partner he doesn't trust, in a tree he doesn't like, during a storm that won't let up.

He's going have to dig in and find the Christmas spirit, if he's going to make it through the night, and get the two teens trapped in the tree back into their parents' arms.

If he does that, without dying in the act, he might just save Christmas.

Let the profanities – I mean festivities, begin!

Pick up this short Christmas story today for a fun twenty-minute read!
