The guides at Look Up Charleston Walking Tours are passionate about showcasing the diverse architectural styles that Charleston has to offer. They'll point out the intricate details on each building, from the ornate ironwork to the grand columned porches, providing you with a deeper understanding of Charleston's rich architectural heritage.

Experience Charleston's Fascinating History

Charleston's history is both awe-inspiring and complex. Look Up Charleston Walking Tours brings the city's past to life through captivating storytelling. As you explore the streets and landmarks, the guides will regale you with tales of pirates, plantations, and revolutionary battles.

One of the highlights of the tour is a visit to the historic Charleston City Market. Dating back to 1807, this bustling market is a true gem. Here, you can browse artisan crafts, sample local treats, and immerse yourself in the lively atmosphere. Your guide will provide insights into the market's history and its significance in Charleston's economy.

Discover Charleston's Hidden Gems

While Charleston is known for its popular landmarks, Look Up Charleston Walking Tours aims to uncover the city's hidden gems that often go unnoticed by tourists. These hidden spots showcase the true essence of Charleston, offering a glimpse into its lesser-known stories and sights.

One of these hidden gems is the French Huguenot Church. Tucked away on Church Street, this historic church is a quiet oasis amidst the bustling city. Its stunning architecture and serene atmosphere make it a must-visit destination that captures the spirit of old Charleston.
