End your time in Liverpool by visiting The Beatles Story – an immersive museum that unravels the story behind their worldwide success. Experience the evolution of their music, witness rare photographs and memorabilia, and relive the triumphs and challenges that marked their career. Liverpool serves not only as a pilgrimage for Beatles fans but also as a testament to the enduring power of music.

Oslo – A Symphony of Nature and Urban Life

Oslo, the capital of Norway, offers a unique blend of stunning natural beauty and vibrant urban life. Begin your exploration by visiting the Vigeland Sculpture Park, where over 200 sculptures by Gustav Vigeland adorn the park. These captivating artworks depict the human experience in all its forms and are a true testament to the artist's genius.

Explore the historic Akershus Fortress, which has witnessed centuries of Norwegian history. From royal banquets to military fortifications, this fortress offers a glimpse into the country's past. Make sure to visit the Viking Ship

Museum, where you can marvel at the intricately preserved Viking ships that once sailed the open seas.

Discover the beauty of Oslo's fjords, as you embark on a scenic cruise through the picturesque landscape. The Oslo Opera House, with its striking architecture, is a must-visit, offering breathtaking views of the city and the fjord. Immerse yourself in the local culture by visiting the vibrant neighborhoods of Grünerløkka and Aker Brygge, and indulge in the delicious Norwegian cuisine.

Prague – A Fairytale City

Prague, the capital of the Czech Republic, is a city straight out of a fairytale. Its timeless architecture, cobblestone streets, and rich history create an enchanting atmosphere that will transport you to a bygone era. Begin your journey by visiting the Prague Castle, one of the largest castle complexes in the world. Explore its grand halls, admire the stunning views of the city, and be captivated by the stories of emperors and kings.

Wander through the iconic Charles Bridge, adorned with statues and bustling with artists, musicians, and street performers. Explore the narrow alleys of the Old Town, where you'll find hidden gems, charming cafes, and local artisans. Don't miss the astronomical wonders of the Prague Astronomical Clock, which has been ticking for over 600 years.

Prague's rich artistic heritage is on full display in its numerous museums and galleries. Visit the National Gallery and immerse yourself in the world of classical and contemporary art. The Franz Kafka Museum offers a unique insight into the life and work of the renowned writer. Experience the magic of Prague firsthand as you navigate its enchanting streets and soak in the atmosphere of this fairy tale city.

Budapest – The Pearl of the Danube

Budapest, the capital of Hungary, is a city pulsating with energy and beauty. Divided by the Danube River, the city is home to an array of stunning architectural landmarks. Start your adventure by visiting the famous Buda Castle, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Explore its opulent halls, enjoy the breathtaking views of the city, and discover the history that shaped this magnificent fortress.

Soak in the healing waters of the Széchenyi Thermal Bath, one of the largest spa complexes in Europe. Relax and rejuvenate amidst ornate architecture and thermal pools, for a truly indulgent experience. Explore the Jewish Quarter, vibrant with its ruin bars, street art, and its unique blend of history and contemporary culture. Don't miss St. Stephen's Basilica, where you can climb to the top for panoramic views of the city.

Budapest's culinary scene is a delightful mix of traditional Hungarian dishes and innovative fusion cuisine. Indulge in goulash, chimney cake, and Hungarian wines as you explore the city's vibrant culinary landscape. As the sun sets, immerse yourself in the vibrant nightlife of Budapest, where ruin bars and hip underground venues await.

Glasgow – A Melting Pot of Culture and History

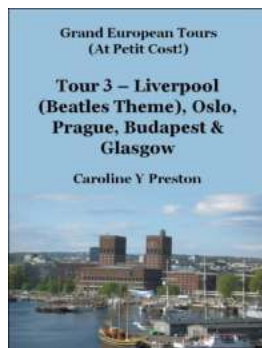

Glasgow, the largest city in Scotland, is a dynamic cultural hub with a rich industrial heritage. Start your journey by exploring the stunning Glasgow Cathedral, a magnificent example of Gothic architecture. Visit the Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum, home to an extensive collection of art and artifacts spanning centuries. Discover the works of renowned artists such as Salvador Dalí, Rembrandt, and Van Gogh.

Immerse yourself in Glasgow's music scene by visiting the famous King Tut's Wah Wah Hut, a legendary music venue that has launched the careers of many renowned artists. Explore the vibrant streets of the West End, filled with quirky shops, lively bars, and an eclectic mix of cultures.

Discover the legacy of renowned architect Charles Rennie Mackintosh, whose unique designs can be found throughout the city. Visit the Mackintosh House and the Glasgow School of Art, as you delve into the innovative world of this visionary artist. Experience the warmth and hospitality of the locals by indulging in traditional Scottish cuisine, such as haggis, fish and chips, and Scotch whisky.

A travel book with a difference which gives a well planned 13 day multi location “Grand Tour” discovering the distinctly different cities of Oslo, Prague, Budapest, Glasgow & Liverpool; all the while soaking up the atmosphere of these interesting cities with their beautiful architecture, colourful folklore, customs and heritage. This illustrated ebook gives directions, maps, info & travel tips.

Have you ever fancied going on a “Grand Tour” like the early aristocrats, staying in multiple locations, but thought it too hard to organise?

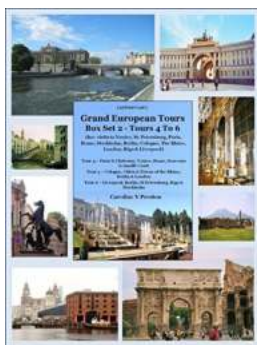

Are you looking for a new kind of travel/guide book? Perhaps one which gives:

- A well planned multiple location tour taking in the sights of the five beautiful and distinctly different cities of Oslo (with its Viking longboats), Prague (with the lovely Charles Bridge), Budapest (with its magnificent Parliament Building and relaxing spas), Glasgow (with its Peoples Palace) and Liverpool (visiting the Beatles old haunts).
- Detailed information on how to organise your own Grand Tour (travel, accommodation, visitor attractions, location history and information, etc.)
- Tips on how to keep costs down whilst away and website addresses to visit to obtain best value for money deals, promotions and discount vouchers.
- Tour destinations and attractions which are a little different to those normally on offer, some of which are “off the beaten track” and are not covered in other guides
- Gives daily itinerary’s to maximise the time spent in each location which you can follow, or tailor to suit yourself
- Has maps, pictures and information on locations and attractions (including address, opening times, web address, how to get there, history &/or other pertinent information)

- All the information required in one book rather than having to purchase and carry, several city /town different guides whilst on your Grand Tour
- Is suitable for all age groups and nationalities (particularly long haul visitors wishing to see as much of Europe as they can in a limited timescale, but not wanting to join a group arranged tour).
- Armchair traveller information and website addresses to enable them to “virtually” undertake the tour and visit attractions on line, if they cannot visit them in person
