Travel internationally with Ella Volé as she tucks you into her flight bag. Fly aboard some of the fanciest commercial airplanes of the seventies – when people dressed up to fly and were served the finest gourmet foods, wines, and spirits. These were the days when passengers had free reign of the cabin – when they could gather in the front or back of the airplane and converse with the cabin crew, smoking their favorite cigarettes. Cockpit crews lounged in the aisles, chatting with passengers, their cockpit doors often left open for curious children. Ella's happy passengers enjoyed themselves without today's smartphones, tablets, laptops, or the Internet. Bienvenue! Welcome aboard!
