What is Blackwork, and Why is it So Popular?

Blackwork, also known as Spanish blackwork or Spanish stitch, is a timeless form of embroidery that originated in the 16th century. It gained popularity during the reign of Catherine of Aragon and Queen Elizabeth I in England, Spain, and other European countries. The distinguishing feature of blackwork is its use of black thread on a white or neutral fabric, creating a striking contrast that enhances the intricate patterns and motifs.
