What is Get Me Out Of Here Middle School?

Get Me Out Of Here Middle School is an innovative program specifically designed to empower middle school students and help them navigate the ups and downs of this crucial stage. It provides a unique blend of academic support, extracurricular activities, and a supportive community that fosters personal growth and confidence.

The Secret Sauce to Success

One of the key elements that sets Get Me Out Of Here Middle School apart is its focus on individualized attention. Each student is assigned a dedicated mentor who acts as their guide and advocate throughout their middle school journey. The mentor serves as a trusted confidant, helping students set goals, overcome obstacles, and develop strategies to excel academically and socially.

Academic Excellence

Get Me Out Of Here Middle School is committed to ensuring that each student reaches their full academic potential. By providing tailored tutoring services, personalized study plans, and small class sizes, students receive the attention they need to succeed. The program offers a wide range of subjects, including mathematics, language arts, science, and social studies, all taught by dedicated and experienced instructors.

Thriving Through Extracurriculars

Education extends beyond the classroom, and that's why Get Me Out Of Here Middle School offers a diverse range of extracurricular activities. From sports teams to art clubs, music ensembles to debate societies, there is something for every student's passion and interest. Participating in extracurriculars not only allows students to explore their talents but also encourages personal growth, teamwork, and a sense of belonging.

Escape Mundanity - Discover a New World

Middle school can sometimes feel like an endless cycle of routine and monotony. The Get Me Out Of Here Middle School program breaks this cycle by organizing regular field trips and immersive learning experiences that broaden students' horizons. These excursions range from historical museum visits to interactive science exhibitions, enabling students to connect the dots between what they learn in the classroom and the real world.

A Supportive Community

In addition to the academic and extracurricular aspects, the Get Me Out Of Here Middle School community plays a crucial role in creating a supportive and inclusive environment. The program fosters positive relationships among students, parents, teachers, and mentors, building a strong network that encourages collaboration, empathy, and a sense of belonging. Students are empowered to express themselves, celebrate their unique qualities, and establish lifelong friendships.

Preparing for High School and Beyond

While the middle school years are important in their own right, they also serve as a foundation for future academic and personal success. Get Me Out Of Here Middle School aims to equip students with the necessary skills, knowledge, and mindset needed to transition smoothly into high school and beyond. By focusing on critical thinking, problem-solving, and self-reflection, students are prepared for the challenges that lie ahead, ensuring a seamless transition into their next educational chapter.

Live large with James Patterson's winning follow-up to the #1 New York Times bestseller Middle School, The Worst Years of My Life.

After sixth grade, the very worst year of his life, Rafe Khatchadorian thinks he has it made in seventh grade. He's been accepted to art school in the big city and imagines a math-and-history-free fun zone. Wrong! It's more competitive than Rafe ever expected, and to score big in class, he needs to find a way to turn his boring life into the inspiration for a work of art. His method? Operation: Get a Life! Anything he's never done before, he's going to do it, from learning to play poker to going to a modern art museum. But when his newest mission uncovers secrets about the family Rafe's never known, he has to decide if he's ready to have his world turned upside down.
