In the last installment of Heart of the Phoenix, Aubrianna dealt with hurt and betrayal from the one that held her heart, forcing her into the arms of her True mate, causing all h*ll to break loose. Tigres, the Lycan King, finds himself suffering from a heartbreak like no other, with no hope to reconcile the pain that he caused. When a foe appears in the picture, posing as a friend will he be able to stop the disaster that is to come or will he find himself lost and confused? Lyari, the Prince of the Elves, has stood in the background while watching the characters constantly falter when it comes to the Phoenix. He believes that she was made for him, regardless of what the Goddess Sekhmet has implied or put into place. When he finally intervenes after all h*ll breaks loose, he leaves a mess of a situation that another has to fix. Will it be fixable and if so, will he walk away or will he fight for what he believes?

Follow along in the final installment of The Heart of the Phoenix and see if the characters you've come to love, finally get their happily ever after.
