With all the swoons and heartfelt of a k-drama...

Kandi Lin is the cute but quirky owner of a sauce and seasoning company in a Coastal California town, who spends all her time watching dramas when she is not coming up with a new flavor or running her company.

He is an aimless young blonde too-hot-for-his-own-good surfer/college student who happens to be what the temp agency sent over when she fell ill. Facing a shortage of good reliable staff choices, she had to settle for this temp with an arrogant attitude. Not being able to shake off the illness, which causes her to lose her sense of taste and smell, as much as she couldn't stand the guy, her sudden condition causes her to rely on the new hotshot assistant she just hired more than she expected.

Even at her home. Everything about him was so wrong.

But then everything about her, to him, felt so right.

Forbidden never felt so sweet.

**Sweetest Season is an enemy-to-lover sweet romance but with a bit of slow burn. Appropriate for TV-14 readers.
