As children, we use our imagination every day. It whisks us away to faraway places, different times and transforms us into whatever we want to be. But sadly, as we get older, many of us lose the beauty and wonder of using our imaginations to become as great as we can be.

This book encourages children to use their imagination. It shares with them its true power and how to make the most of it.

Beautifully written in rhyme and a simple-to-understand manner, it allows them to dream and be open to incredible possibilities. It also teaches the marvellous ability they have to be curious and creative.

The use of the imagination is a core teaching in most adult personal development and maximizing potential courses. Often paired with mindset and visualization teaching - adults are encouraged to appreciate the true power of imagination and maximize its use. It is a vital part of Goal Setting, Mindset, the Law of Attraction, Law of Assumption, and Maximizing Results training.

This wonderfully illustrated book will encourage your child's confidence and curiosity and, it will help them explore their amazing minds. It's perfect for bedtime reading. It's a great book for parents and teachers.

Imagine if your child learnt how to confidently harness this phenomenal power from a young age. Imagine the possibilities that await them.
