After completing his dance education, Horwood embarked on a successful career as a dancer and choreographer. He worked in renowned theater productions, such as "West Side Story" and "Cats," where his talent and dedication caught the attention of industry professionals.

Horwood's rise to stardom accelerated when he became part of the critically acclaimed dance show, "Strictly Come Dancing." As a judge, his honest yet sometimes harsh comments have made him both loved and feared among the contestants.

His background in different dance styles gives Horwood a unique perspective, allowing him to critique performances with both technical knowledge and artistic flair. While some might find his comments strict, his intention is always to push the dancers to their fullest potential.

Beyond Strictly

Outside of "Strictly Come Dancing," Craig Revel Horwood has made various appearances in other TV shows, further expanding his reach in the entertainment industry. He has also directed and choreographed numerous theater productions, showcasing his versatility and talent as a creative artist.

While he is well-known for his television appearances, Horwood remains deeply committed to the art of dance in its purest form. He continues to actively work with dance companies and participate in dance festivals, not only in the United Kingdom but also around the globe.

One of Horwood's greatest contributions to the dance world lies in his passion for teaching and mentoring aspiring dancers. He regularly conducts masterclasses and workshops, sharing his expertise and providing valuable insights to the next generation of performers.

Horwood's dedication to dance extends beyond his professional life. As a philanthropist, he actively supports charities and initiatives that promote the accessibility of dance to all individuals, regardless of their background or circumstances.

A Lasting Legacy

Craig Revel Horwood's impact on the dance industry is undeniable. His distinctive style, combined with his genuine passion for the art form, has inspired countless dancers and enthusiasts around the world.

Although he is often associated with his role on "Strictly Come Dancing," Horwood's journey encompasses a lifetime of dedication to dance. From his early days as a performer to his current status as a renowned judge, he has successfully carved a path that showcases his talent and love for the art.

As the dance world continues to evolve, it is individuals like Craig Revel Horwood who push boundaries, challenge norms, and inspire others to embrace their artistic potential. With his sharp tongue and undeniable expertise, he continues to shape the future of dance in the strictest confidence.

The third instalment in Craig Revel Horwood's frank and funny autobiography takes the reader through the highs and lows of the Strictly Come Dancing star's 'fab-u-lous' life. Join Craig and a host of Strictly stars - including Ore Oduba, Judy Murray and the unforgettable Ed Balls - on the show and live tours and get the real stories from behind the scenes.

The Aussie-born judge shares his famously forthright views on the changes in the show's line up, from Bruce Forsyth and Len Goodman's departures to the arrival of Claudia Winkleman and Shirley Ballas, as well as the dancers and stars.

Away from Strictly, Craig reveals fresh heartache over failed romances, his pain at losing his dad and how his work kept him from flying to Australia for the funeral. He marks the milestones in his life, including turning fifty and moving from London to live in a 'gorgeous' country pile, as well as going under the knife for a second hip operation plus a few nips and tucks.

The multi-talented dancer, director and choreographer also discusses his award-winning shows, including Sister Act and Son of a Preacher Man, and spending a year in drag as Miss Hannigan in Annie. Plus, he reveals all about his foray into movies, choreographing Hugh Grant for Paddington 2 and making his big screen debut in Nativity Rocks.

With his famous wit and a wealth of backstage gossip, In Strictest Confidence is the perfect read for all his fans as well as those of Strictly Come Dancing.
