What do the women of Sea View have in common? Dan!

When two dead women wash up on the beach, their only common denominator is Long Island attorney, Dan Chua, Pam's on-again, off-again lover.

Then, at a Sea View beach gathering of friends and family, Laura Long realizes that every female guest there had been involved with him. The fact is pointed out to Dan, and he changes his modus operandi; something he'd attempted to do and failed many times in the past.

But when Dan takes himself out of circulation, his popularity with the womenfolk of Babylon increases exponentially. Focusing on his three children with three different mothers helps Dan skirt some near disaster romances. How long can Dan stay strong before the next Mrs. Chua is introduced to Long Island society?
