The Vision

Jamboree Build To Serve Thomas Walker envisions a world where every individual has access to safe and affordable housing, regardless of their socioeconomic background. Through the power of construction, they aim to create communities that uplift, inspire, and serve as catalysts for positive change.

Transformation through Construction

Construction is more than just erecting buildings; it is about building dreams, opportunities, and connections. Jamboree Build To Serve Thomas Walker views construction as a means to empower communities and bring people together. With each project they undertake, they strive to:

- Create safe and sustainable housing options for individuals and families in need.
- Promote economic development through job opportunities and skills training.
- Revitalize neighborhoods and enhance community infrastructure.
- Foster a sense of pride and ownership within communities.

Impactful Initiatives

Jamboree Build To Serve Thomas Walker's commitment to social responsibility is evident through their various impactful initiatives:

1. Affordable Housing Projects

Jamboree Build To Serve Thomas Walker recognizes the importance of adequate and affordable housing for individuals and families. They collaborate with community partners to develop housing solutions that meet the diverse needs of residents, ensuring the availability of options for low-income families, seniors, and individuals with disabilities.

2. Workforce Development Programs

Recognizing that construction can act as a stepping stone towards financial stability, Jamboree Build To Serve Thomas Walker offers workforce development programs. These programs provide hands-on training, mentorship opportunities, and job placement assistance to individuals seeking careers in the construction industry. By equipping individuals with the necessary skills, they contribute to the growth and sustainability of local economies.

3. Community Engagement

Jamboree Build To Serve Thomas Walker firmly believes that community involvement is the key to achieving lasting change. They actively engage with community members, local businesses, and leaders to understand their unique needs and aspirations. This collaborative approach ensures that every project aligns with the community's vision, culture, and values.

Twelve-year-old Ben Walters has a fabulous opportunity to attend the 1969 Boy Scout Jamboree at Farragut State Park in North Idaho. But it's an opportunity complicated by two problems. First, he has to hustle to meet the attendance requirements. Second, Carl Eastman and Lenny Decker are also going, and their idea of fun is to bully Ben.

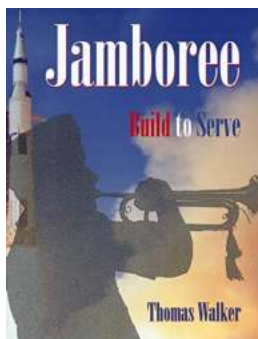

While Apollo 11 blasts off for the moon, Ben joins 35,000 Boy Scouts camping out on the shores of beautiful Lake Pend Oreille at the Eighth National Jamboree. He meets boys from all over the United States and several foreign countries.

Exploring various American cultures, Ben finds acceptance among his peers, despite the harassment of hometown tormentors.

Come watch Ben's patrol, the Grizzlies, as they live, work, and eat together. As a team, they compete for national honors, and they are inspired by real 1960s heroes for rebuilding their restless society through acts of service. Discover a vision of the world before smartphones and the Internet, a time we've only recently forgotten.
