One of the most appealing aspects of this pattern is its versatility. The Lace Crochet Motif Capelet Shawl can be worn in various ways to suit different occasions and personal styles. Wear it as a shawl for a formal event, drape it over your shoulders to add flair to a casual outfit, or even wrap it around your neck as a statement scarf – the possibilities are endless!

Get Creative with Colors and Yarn Choices

What makes this Lace Crochet Motif Capelet Shawl Pattern even more exciting is that you have the freedom to experiment with various colors and yarn choices. Opt for a classic white or ivory shade for a timeless and elegant look, or go bold with bright and vibrant colors to make a fashion statement. The choice is yours!

The pattern allows you to use different yarn weights, giving you even more flexibility in creating different styles and textures. You can use a lightweight yarn for a delicate and ethereal feel or a chunkier yarn for a more cozy and textured shawl. Let your creativity run wild and make this lace crochet shawl truly unique to your personal taste.

This is an original pattern written by contemporary artist Kristen Stein. The capelet foundation is based on a lace motif original design with decorative edge and ribbed collar. It is versatile and can be worn a number of ways. It is a pattern that crochets easily and quickly with less than two balls of yarn. No complicated stitches are used. A beautiful piece to wear throughout the year.
