The past two months have been the worst of twelve year old Logan James' life. He just lost his mother in a car accident and since has had to stay at a ruthless child agency while waiting to be sent to an orphanage.

Shortly after arrival at the orphanage, Logan and his roommate, Alec, discover a moon-shaped necklace that transports them into a world full of flying men, super strong women, and giant-sized wolves. The two boys soon realize along with two new acquaintances, Thom and Riley, that this land is locked in a battle between good and evil. And when one of Logan's companions is kidnapped he takes it upon himself to win the war.

Join Logan as he ventures into the unknown and uncovers secrets that will change his life forever. Welcome to Hardwicke.
