Meet Natalie - a vivacious young woman with a sparkle in her eyes and a bewitching smile. Her vibrant spirit matched the lively atmosphere of the town perfectly. Natalie was often described as the life of the party, always seeking adventure and pushing boundaries.

It was during a sweltering July afternoon that Natalie's life intertwined with Tommy, a kind-hearted musician whose soulful melodies could captivate even the toughest hearts. Their paths crossed at the town's annual summer fair, a gathering that saw families and friends come together for days of pure joy. A kaleidoscope of colorful lights illuminated the night sky as laughter and screams of delight echoed through the air.

From the moment Tommy laid eyes on Natalie, he felt an instant connection. It was as if fate had orchestrated their meeting, teasing them to embark on a journey of love that would forever transform their lives. Intrigued by Natalie's vivacity, Tommy set out to win her heart, knowing deep down that this was no ordinary romance.

Theirs was a story of trust - trust in the unfolding chapter of their lives, trust in each other's dreams, and trust that their love would endure the tests of time. With every heartfelt conversation, stolen glance, and shared laugh, their bond grew stronger. Together, they experienced a summer like no other, filled with stolen kisses beneath starlit skies and secret rendezvous in hidden coves.

But Natalie possessed a mischievous side, a subtle allure that brought daring adventures to their passion-filled days. Her playful nature challenged Tommy, pushing him to embrace the unknown and discover the depths of his own desires. With Natalie by his side, Tommy was liberated from the constraints of conformity, and together they ventured into uncharted territories, seeking thrills that left their hearts racing and their souls entwined.

Their encounters took them to hidden beach parties, where bonfires illuminated the night and the rhythmic beat of music intoxicated their senses. They danced barefoot in the sand, their bodies moving in perfect harmony with the rhythm of the waves. Those summer nights were filled with laughter, joy, and an unspoken promise to live in the present, cherishing every single moment.

As the summer drew to a close, they knew their time together was finite. Their romance had been a glorious blaze, burning fiercely and brightly, but such intensity couldn't last forever. And so, they immersed themselves in a final adventure, defying the constraints of reality and leaving an indelible mark on the memories of all who witnessed their love.

Naughty Natalie and Tommy knew their paths would diverge, their lives drifting apart like the tides at dawn. But their hearts remained forever intertwined, carrying the essence of that summer in 1985. They understood that love wasn't about possessing someone; it was about trusting them enough to let them go, allowing them to flourish in their own journey.

And as their tale concluded, each going their separate ways, they left behind a legacy of love and trust that would resonate through time. Their story became a legend, whispered by the town's inhabitants, inspiring future generations to seek moments of pure bliss and to trust in the power of love.

So, the next time you find yourself on a sandy beach, feeling the warmth of the sun on your skin, listen closely. You might just hear the echo of Naughty Natalie and her trust-filled summer of fun, a reminder that true love knows no boundaries and can be found in the most unexpected of places.

The summer of 1985 was a lot of good times just turning 18 years old which in Canada is the legal age to have fun. But I still looked 14 years old “Virgin” which made life a little difficult which I tell about in my 6th published book. The vehicle that gave me freedom was my 1937 Dodge hot rod truck which was driven hard because the 3” exhaust side pipes was music to my ears. The lady that I trusted the most in my life was Naughty Natalie. She drove the 37 Dodge just as hard on our adventures from Golden British Columbia to Minot North Dakota in the USA. In the mid 1980s we did not dress for success we dressed to relax. I wore my Heavy Metal Rock Band tee shirts while Naughty Natalie wore tight painted on blue jean shorts with a white tank top. We did not act like young love birds because Love is Trust. I trusted Naughty Natalie with my truck, my money and my life and she trusted me with her life. Growing up in southern Manitoba made me who I am today. A single parent of a daughter, published author since 2006 and on national TV around the world as the King of Obsolete all from living at the end of the world in Lynn Lake Manitoba Canada.
