Trusting that “the third time’s a charm,” this 55-year-old woman sells her beloved houseboat, takes early retirement, kisses her kids and grandkids good-bye and moves to Sweden to live with the love of her life - Husband Number III.

But is life compatible with a silent Swede? In a clime with just several hours of daylight in winter? In a country where witches knock on your door at Easter and sitting naked in a sauna with neighbors is normal? In a language where the word for marriage is the same as for poison? In a town of tall, slim blondes with this short and graying brunette is always the chubbiest person present?
