Will Laura and Franck's engagement survive their tumultuous journey to the altar?

My Grape Wedding, the fifth book in Laura Bradbury's #1 bestselling Grape Series, takes fans from London to the enchanting world of Burgundy five years after Laura inconveniently falls head over heels in love with Franck during a student exchange. After a spontaneous proposal in Kathmandu, the bride-to-be struggles with balancing the academic demands of a law degree at Oxford with lessons on how to be a proper Catholic and fittings with the Queen of England's corset maker.

Once in Burgundy. Laura's anxiety grows as wedding plans fall apart. As guests arrive, the rain clouds move in, family wine tastings turn into survival of the fittest, and a bombshell from the priest leaves the couple looking for divine intervention. Laura believes she and Franck belong together, but will their relationship outlast the chaos en route to the altar?

Consider this your invitation to the most uproarious and romantic french wedding of the Season.

PRAISE FOR LAURA BRADBURY

“Bradbury’s Grape Series feels like a series of honest and funny letters sent from a friend about her fascinating (and sometimes baffling) life in France. A beautiful read.”

—Janice MacLeod, New York Times bestselling author of Paris Letters and A Paris Year

“Bradbury’s Grape Series takes the reader on a romantic adventure into the heart, soul, and people of la belle France. Filled with delicious food, love, and laughter, Bradbury’s writing proves that you have to dare to follow your heart wherever it leads you...and that sometimes we have to step outside our comfort zone to truly live.”

—Samantha Vérant, author of How to Make a French Family and Seven Letters from Paris
