The purpose of this book, part two, is the same as the first part, in this case it is the preparation of a whistle, while the first part was about a lapwing. For those who did not buy the first, it is a matter of directing hunting lovers and young people today to approach the wonderful world of nature. Through this book and the updates that I will publish later, I will try to describe improving notions and techniques, the art of taxidermy. To help everyone gradually approach this art, as I said in the first part, I have divided this work into several books, in any case with different animals, which I will publish periodically. N.B. This book, in addition to the written part, contains an hour of movies distributed in 16 films. Among these, film 16 is a time lapse. It deals with the preparation of a woodcock. Please note: there may be grammatical errors due to my lack of knowledge with foreign languages (original language: Italian)
