Oban, Scotland is a town often used for access to the a few of the famous Isles of Scotland. When I arrived in Oban (meaning Little Bay" in Gaelic), I found myself lost in tranquil sunrises and was mesmerized by dramatic sunsets. It is a place of charisma, natural beauty, and a hidden treasure lost to those who do not take time to explore it before heading to the Isles. I hope through my photos, you find the same beauty I found during my short visit to the Little Bay in Scotland.
