Throughout the program, the Pee Wee Scouts will have the chance to discover various aspects of spring, including blooming flowers, buzzing bees, chirping birds, and much more. From exploring local parks to visiting botanical gardens, every activity is crafted to spark curiosity and cultivate a love for nature.

Engaging Activities for Hours of Fun

The Pee Wee Scouts Spring Sprouts program is packed with thrilling activities that will keep children entertained while encouraging them to learn about the world around them. Some of the activities you can expect to participate in include:

- Guided nature walks to observe and identify different plants and animals
- Hands-on gardening projects to learn about planting and nurturing flowers
- Creating nature-inspired crafts using materials collected during hikes
- Learning about the life cycles of insects and observing them in their natural habitats
- Picnicking and enjoying outdoor games in beautiful scenic locations
- Visiting local farms to understand the process of growing and harvesting seasonal produce

Experienced and Passionate Instructors

The Pee Wee Scouts Spring Sprouts program is led by a team of experienced instructors who have a deep passion for nature and education. Our instructors are not only knowledgeable but also skilled in delivering information in an engaging and age-appropriate manner. They will ensure that each child feels comfortable, motivated, and inspired throughout the program.

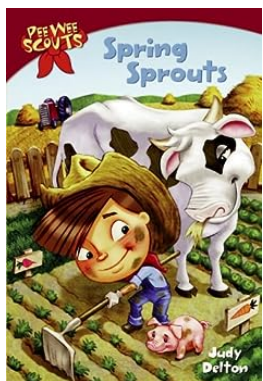

With their guidance, the Pee Wee Scouts will have the opportunity to ask questions, share observations, and interact with their surroundings. These interactions foster a sense of curiosity and environmental consciousness that will stay with the children long after the program ends.

With a brand-new badge up for grabs, the Scouts set out to learn where their food comes from. Molly wants a garden of her own, so she gives her seeds plenty of sunlight, water, and . . . conversation? And while she waits for her veggies to sprout, a trip to a local farm turns out to be a lot funnier—and muddier—than any of the Scouts expected.

The sun is shining. The flowers are blooming. And the Pee Wees are ready to get their hands dirty!
